

Renamo will keep up fight

Business Day - 2 AUG 1989
RENAMO says it will not lay down arms during peace negotiations with the Mozambican government.

In a communique released in Lisbon, Renamo said it did not intend to stop the fighting either before or during the negotiations.

The statement came at the same time as the statement by Mozambican Foreign Minister Pascoal Mocumbi, who ruled out any power-sharing between Frelimo and Renamo.

He reiterated that dialogue with Renamo would only be possible after the movement renounced violence and accepted the existing order. — Sapa.
