

Another step in rebuilding economic links between SA and Mozambique has been taken with the nomination of a liaison officer to serve local exporters, investors and the Mozambique government. He is Department of Industries, Commerce and Tourism public relations officer Theo van der Merwe who was SA consul in Brazil in charge of the commercial section until last year. One of his first tasks will be to organise a trade mission to Mozambique later this year.

Financial Mail 11.5.84