

Envoy condemns Nkomati accord

The new Nigerian Ambassador to Lusaka has condemned the Nkomati accord between Mozambique and South Africa, calling it an attempt by the racist regime to enlarge its sphere of influence in the area.

Answering the new envoy, President Kaunda said he understood the reasons for signing the accord; Mozambique would otherwise have continued to suffer military destabilisation, he said.

West Africa 22/10/84