

Mozambique: ANC official denies supply of ammunition: S African agent detained
Speaking in Maputo on 20th December, Jacob Zuma, the ANC's chief representative in Mozambique and a member of the movement's National Executive Committee, dismissed as a lie Pretoria's report that two men were arrested on the border with Swaziland while carrying ammunition from Mozambique, Maputo radio reported. On 19th December the radio reported that Mozambique's security services had detained a South African citizen who was working for Pretoria's military intelligence. The unidentified agent told Mozambican security services that he was recruited to fabricate evidence that Mozambique was being used by the ANC to store weapons.
