
Malan's warning to S Africa's neighbours that the security forces would have no alternative but to take cross-border action when necessary if neighbouring states ignored the State President's proposal to set up a joint southern African security organisation was reported by the South African agency on 4th February.* 6/2/86