[Text] ANC President Oliver Tambo said on his arrival in Maputo today that his organization was currently engaged in mobilizing the South African people to boycott the local elections fixed by the Pretoria regime for next October. Tambo was speaking to Radio Mozambique this afternoon shortly after his arrival in Maputo to attend the proceedings of the SADCC summit meeting due to begin after tomorrow. He described meetings of this nature as important to efforts by the SADCC countries to reduce their economic dependence on South Africa. This helps in advancing the struggle of the South African people to overthrow apartheid, Oliver Tambo said. Also arriving on the the same plane to attend the summit meeting was Pascual Luvualu, a member of the MPLA-Labor Party Political Bureau. 2017155
