

S African delegation in Mozambique for talks     A South African delegation led by the Director-General of the Department of Foreign Affairs, Neil van Heerden, arrived in Maputo on 25th May for a meeting of the South Africa-Mozambique joint liaison committee, according to Johannesburg radio. Talks are expected to centre on the revival of the joint security commission.