

ME/0198 ii 8/7/88

S Africa-Mozambique security commission meets in Pretoria

A two-day meeting of the Mozambique-S Africa joint security commission started in Pretoria on 6th July, according to Maputo radio. The commission was established under the Nkomati Accord of March 1984 but was suspended in mid-1985 by Mozambique after the discovery of documents which "proved systematic and flagrant violation of the Nkomati Accord by South Africa". The Mozambican delegation to the talks was led by the army commander, Lt-Gen Tobias Dai.