[Text] President Joaquim Chissano said in Maputo yesterday that the Mozambique Government will continue its dialogue with South Africa in order to make it dismantle terrorism in Mozambique. Chissano was speaking at a New Year's function for the diplomatic corps accredited to Mozambique. The Mozambican president added that he believes that ending terrorism in Mozambique can only reduce the existing atmosphere of tension and war in southern Africa and contribute toward a resumption in the policy of dialogue, thus bringing benefits for the two countries.
