

Mandela to visit Mozambique

JOHANNESBURG. — President Mandela will visit Mozambique next week.

Mr Mandela's office said he would be in Mozambique from July 20 to July 22 as a guest of Mozambican President Joaquim Chissano.

He would also meet Renamo leader Afonso Dhlakama and other non-government leaders.

It will be Mr Mandela's first state visit to a foreign country since the election.

Mr Mandela will also join other heads of state attending a conference on science and technology in Maputo.

"It is envisaged that during these meetings, bilateral relations between South Africa and Mozambique and the promotion of regional development will be discussed," the statement said. — Reuter.
