

NEW YORK TIMES, SEPTEMBER 28, 1979

Rhodesian Troops Attack Guerrillas in Mozambique

SALISBURY, Zimbabwe Rhodesia, Sept. 27 (Reuters) — Zimbabwe Rhodesian troops crossed into Mozambique today to strike at Patriotic Front guerrillas in the first such attack since the start of London talks on Zimbabwe Rhodesia's future.

A four-line communique from military headquarters said that the assault was aimed at the Zimbabwe African National Liberation Army of Robert Mugabe, the Patriotic Front co-leader. The targets were 25 miles northeast of the border city of Umtali, the statement said. It described the raid as a self-defense opera-