

OAU Chairman questioned on AIDS in Africa In an interview for France Inter on 9th February Denis Sassou-Nguesso said that AIDS was a problem for the entire international community, and he rejected the campaign which "some are trying to launch as if to make Africa a pariah". He said that Africa had no reason to accept responsibility for this scourge, which he called "very serious". 11 FEB 1987