

134 Aids cases in Mozambique

MAPUTO — At least 134 cases of Aids have been confirmed in Mozambique, according to Dr Antonio Noya of the government's anti-Aids programme.

These were only the cases that have been registered, he said, and more cases could exist in areas made inaccessible by the civil war. — The Star's Africa News Service.

Star
24/9/90