

Intern. Herald Trib.
Sept. 9, '82

Rebel Base Destroyed Mozambique Reports

United Press International

MAPUTO — Government troops have destroyed an important mountain base of the Mozambique National Resistance Movement, killing 46 rebels, Radio Mozambique said Wednesday.

Government forces seized bazookas, mortar shells, rifles and machine-guns in the weekend operation at Chicuecuete, about two miles (3.2 kilometers) from the border with Zimbabwe in Manica province, the official radio said.