

Portugal and the Mozambique resistance movement Maputo radio on 2nd October, in reporting that the Portuguese Government had ordered an inquiry into the activities of the spokesman of the Mozambican resistance movement in Lisbon, cited a BBC report saying that the Portuguese Foreign Minister had recently stated that the Portuguese Government would not tolerate activities in Portugal that were hostile to African Governments. Maputo radio said that "the spokesman of the armed gangsters in Lisbon" was reported to be a Portuguese national. '82