

Commune in Mozambique for peasants liberated from armed gangsters (Text) Peasants liberated from the armed gangsters by the Mozambican armed forces in Manica Province have begun building their own future village commune. They have already built 40 houses. Now they are starting up their own individual farms and have received seed from the Manica district administration officials. The peasants are also organizing themselves in a self-defence force against the armed gangsters. (Maputo in Portuguese 1600 gmt 15 Nov 82)
