

Military service in Mozambique. (Text) A communique from the National Defence Ministry says that registration for military service in 1983 will commence on 2nd January and is expected to end on 2nd March. That communique also states that this will cover any citizen born in 1966 and those who for various reasons were unable to register in 1982. The latter will have to present an explanation approved by competent bodies. Individuals affected by this registration should report at registration centres with identity cards, a personal [word indistinct] and two [word indistinct] photographs.
