

Mozambique National Resistance meeting in Switzerland The "Voice of Free Africa" reported on 17th March that the Mozambique National Resistance - which the radio referred to by the acronym of "Renamo" - had held its "first assembly of the military and political cadres" in Geneva from 3rd-8th March. The assembly, which had been chaired by Afonso Dhlakama, the Renamo president, had defined "new methods for the areas of activity, bearing in mind the forthcoming escalation of the struggle"