
MOZAMBIQUE

o About 40 Soviet aid workers have been recalled and Danish, Canadian, Dutch and Swedish expatriates pulled back to regional centres following concern over security after the killing of 10 foreign aid workers by the rebel Mozambique National Resistance in December (AED 21:12:84). Meanwhile, a committee chaired by Foreign Affairs Minister Joaquim Chissano has been set up to review the security of individual aid projects.

AED 8/2/85