

Policy shift

LONDON — The South African Government has given up trying to arrange a peace agreement between the Frelimo Government and the Mozambique National Resistance, the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr Louis Nel, said here in an interview.

He said South Africa was now seeking ways of co-operating with Frelimo to eliminate the MNR threat.