MNR KILL SEVEN IN BUS RAID

MAPUTO.

MNR bandits killed seven people and wounded 20 on Monday, when they attacked a bus travelling from the Swaziland border to Maputo, AIM reported.

The agency quoted a hospital official in Maputo as saying 16 of the wounded were in serious condition. Maputo radio broadcast appeals for blood donations.

A Maputo resident lost his right leg on Monday when he trod on a mine hidden on one of the city's beaches. This brings to three the number of people seriously injured by mines along this stretch of beach. — Ziana-Aim-AP.
