

Reported Mozambican government claim of MNR casualties in July (Text of Lisbon radio report) The Mozambican army has killed 78 members of Renamo [MNR, Mozambican National Resistance Movement] in the first half of this month, it was announced today by Mozambique radio. The state radio station said that 43 civilians who had been forced to live in Renamo camps, had been set free. (Lisbon home service 2100 gmt 19 Jul 86)