

Mozambican government and MNR military claims (Text) The Mozambique armed forces FPLM have captured 11 armed bandits in Errurrune, in the Munhamade locality of Lugela district, Zambezia province. The armed bandits were part of the group of gangsters who had stormed Lugela district in March, but which is now in control of our armed forces. The support given by the local residents in exposing all armed bandit movements and hide-outs contributed substantially to the capture of the 11 bandits.
