

Sithole teams up with MNR

THE leader of the Zimbabwe African National Union, the Rev. Ndabasingi Sithole, telephoned the Editor of The Sunday Mail from an unspecified venue in the United States and said: "I have been informed that The Sunday Mail carried an article to the effect that I was in league with Jonas Savimbi to overthrow the Zimbabwe Government. I want to state clearly and categorically that this is false from start to finish. Only mischief-makers could have written that about me."

He refused to answer further questions. The Sunday Mail asked him and his denial did not make references to the MNR.
