

Mozambican peasants freed by armed forces (Text) About 300 peasants who were living under the yoke of the armed bandits in Mossurize district, Manica province have been freed in the past few days by the Mozambican armed forces. The release occurred under the auspices of combat actions marking the second general elections. The recently freed peasants are being resettled in a communal village called Venceremos (Portuguese. we shall win). This was disclosed recently in Espungabera at a meeting assessing the first phase of elections in Mossurize. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1030 gmt 27 Sep 86)
