

Mozambican army operations near Malawian border (Text) The Mozambique armed forces killed 18 armed bandits in Milange district, Zambezia province, last week. The bandits were killed during FPLM operations near the border with Malawi. In an interview with AIM [Mozambique Information Agency], the Milange district administrator said that the last few days had seen an increase in armed bandit infiltrations from (?Mococorra), a Malawian region on the border with Milange.
