

BANDITS ATTACK RELIEF CONVOY

South African backed MNR bandits have attacked a convoy carrying goods destined for the survivors of the massacre and for displaced people in Homoine. The convoy, travelling from Maputo to Homoine, was ambushed at Chongola, in the southern part of Inhambane province on 23 July. The bandits killed four people in the attack, including the driver of a Red Cross vehicle, 40 year old Julião Fanheiro. As has happened frequently in the past, the bandits showed no respect whatsoever for the Red Cross.
