MAPUTO — Bandits of the MNR massacred 14 people in an attack on a village in the central Mozambican province of Sofala on Sunday, according to a report in the daily paper Diário de Moçambique, published in the port city of Beira.

The MNR struck in the early hours of the morning at the village of Mucedra, about 15 km from the town of Gorongosa. The motive for the raid, says the paper, was to steal food.

Of the 14 dead, some were shot, others were stabbed to death with bayonets. A further 44 were injured. Those in a serious condition were taken to the central hospital in Beira. — Ziana-AIM-Pana.
