[Text] In Dombe administrative post, in Manica Province's Sussundenga District, the FPLM forces killed 10 armed bandits between January and March this year.

According to our correspondent in that region, in their military operations the FPLM forces captured two light weapons and freed 36 people from the clutches of the bandits.

Captain Faustino Mezane, section commander of the FPLM forces in Sussundenga, says more than 45 bandits were killed in Dombe administrative post last year.
