

Zimbabwe: Minister cites successes against MNR
Zimbabwean Minister for Home Affairs Moven Mahachi has announced that several MNR "bandits" have been arrested in eastern districts over the past few weeks, Harare radio reported on 23rd March. The minister said that, as a result of the successes in the eastern areas and the unity accord signed between ZANU-PF and ZAPU, the security situation had improved and dissident activities in Matabeleland had decreased.

ME/0110 ii, 26/3/88