

89 06 08

Southscan

MNR threat

The Mozambique National Resistance rebel force said on Wednesday it was closing certain areas of the country to International Red Cross missions after an alleged government bombing of civilians. In a statement released in Lisbon it said the ICRC could no longer operate relief missions to the populations in Nampula, Zambezia and Manica.