

1,600 Renamo Rebels Surrender; Efforts Continue

MB3007200588 Blantyre Domestic Service in English

1800 GMT 30 Jul 88

[Text] Mozambique disclosed today that 1,600 Renamo rebels have surrendered so far under a 7-month-old amnesty. In an interview with [word indistinct] in Maputo, the Mozambican justice minister, Mr Ossumane Ali Dauto, said the government was continuing its efforts to spread the news of the amnesty. The Renamo rebels have been fighting the Mozambican Government for more than a decade.