

Commander Asks Forces To Fight 'Banditry' Harder
MB1308155288 Maputo Domestic Service in Portuguese
1400 GMT 13 Aug 88

FBIS - AFR - 88 - 159, p 8

[Text] Mozambican Army Commander Lieutenant General Tobias Dai, has called on the FPLM forces to redouble their efforts in the struggle against armed banditry as a means of stepping up the defense reorganization process.

17/8/88

He was speaking at (Meonze) political and military training center, in Inhambane Province's Jangamo district, during his recent visit there. His visit fitted within the framework of verification and analysis of Inhambane Province's social, political, and military situation.

Lt Gen Tobias Dai also said that each soldier must work indefatigably to maintain peace in his operation region because, he stressed, the armed bandits are losing (?momentum) in the battlefield.