

Zimbabwe: Mozambican rebels kill six, injure three (Text) Six people, four of them children, have been murdered by South African-sponsored Renamo bandits when they attacked a village in (?Mutumbura). A police spokesman told ZIANA that three other people were injured in the attack. The victims have been identified as [names indistinct], all from Manzino [phonetic] village. Security forces have launched a follow-up operation. (Harare home service in English 1745 gmt 18 Aug 88)