MNR losses

MAPUTO — The Mozambican government forces killed 111 MNR bandits in four of the country's ten provinces between August 11 and 17, according to a Radio Mozambique report yesterday. Forty bandits were killed in the northern province of Nampula, 16 in the central province of Zambezia and 55 in the southern provinces of Inhambane and Maputo. The government forces also destroyed 8 MNR camps. — Ziana-Xinhua
