MNR losses

MAPUTO — The Mozambican government forces killed 111 MNR bandits in four of the country's ten provinces between August 11 and 17, according to a Radio Mozambique report yesterday. Forty bandits were killed in the northern province of Nam-pula, 16 in the central province of Zambezia and 55 in the southern provinces of Inhambane and Maputo. The government forces also destroyed 8 MNR camps. — Ziana-Xinhua
