

Renamo broke? Infirmafica 1 (13) Oct. 88

Renamo's representation abroad, appears to be in serious financial difficulties with its officials stationed in West Europe and North America complaining about a lack of cash.

Rebel leader Afonso Dhlakama reportedly personally carried funds for the external wing when he met his representatives in West Germany in September.

Meanwhile further personal tensions may be about to emerge in the movement following reports that Renamo's Information Secretary Francisco Nota, who lives in Canada, has written to Dhlakama recommending that Foreign Relations Secretary Artur Janeiro da Fonseca who lives in Bonn, and the U.S. representative Luís Serapião both be sacked for "inefficiency"
