

Frelimo's Ndobe: MNR Has No Political Objective
MB0110113888 Maputo in English to Southern Africa
1100 GMT 1 Oct 88

[Text] A leading member of Mozambique's Frelimo Party, Guideon Ndobe, has told the Malawi news agency that the MNR bandits have no political objectives, but want only to cause destruction in Mozambique and neighboring countries.

Mr Ndobe, who is a member of the Frelimo Party Central Committee, was speaking on his departure from Lilongwe airport after attending the annual conference of the Malawi Congress Party.

He said the bandits' activity denies landlocked countries, such as Malawi and Zimbabwe, routes to the ports of Mozambique. Such actions not only destabilize Mozambique, but also destabilize all countries which are linked to these ports. Mr Ndobe said the bandits in Mozambique have shown no interest in political power, and their only interest is the destruction of the national economy, schools, hospitals, and farms.