

Bandits murder 2

TWO people were murdered and a young girl abducted by the South African-sponsored MNR bandits in two separate attacks on villages in the Honde Valley, in Mutasa last weekend.

Police in Mutare confirmed the incidents. The first one occurred at Ngarura village and the second one at Mandeya Two recently.

At Ngarura about six bandits were said to have abducted three young children after looting neighbouring villages. Two of the children managed to escape, but the whereabouts of a young girl are still unknown.

In the second attack, a woman was hacked to death with an axe and a man was shot dead.

H 31/10/88