MNR murder six

H 7/10/84

BEIRA. — A gang of South African-backed MNR bandits killed six people on September 25 in an attack against a centre for returning refugees in the district of Nhamatanda in Mozambique's central province of Sofala. The Nhamatanda district administrator, Cde Braz Sidassicua, said yesterday that the attack on the centre took place in the early hours of the morning. The bandits attacked the huts built by the former refugees and stole food and clothing that had been given to the centre. — Ziana-AIM-Pana.
