[Text] Mozambican Armed Forces destroyed an armed bandit camp near (Mutalala) in Zambezia Province's Namarroi district last November. Our armed forces freed more than 50 people living under the yoke of the criminals. Our reporter in Quelimane says those citizens are now being placed in agricultural jobs after receiving production tools, clothing, and food.

We have also received news from Zambezia Province that some 2,000 people who fled bandit captivity turned themselves in to the Namacurra district authorities in November.
