

MNR cut power lines 4. 15/3/89

MAPUTO. — The power transmission lines from South Africa to the Mozambican capital of Maputo have been cut off again by the MNR bandits, according to a release from the Mozambican state electricity company on Monday. The sabotage took place on Sunday at a section 30 km from the border town of Ressano Garcia, where the transmission lines enter the Mozambican territory. — Ziana-Xinhua.
