

Further bandit attacks - despite MNR 'ceasefire' M10 News Review (153) 4/5/89

Bandits of the South African backed MNR attacked a residential zone of the Salamanga agricultural company, about 60 kilometres south of Maputo, on 10 April, killing one person and burning 50 houses, according to a Radio Mozambique report. The bandits also destroyed a tractor, and stole an unspecified number of cattle, and other goods.
