

Burned yacht Natal 01 sighted, crew 9/5/90 in good health

Mercury Correspondent

EAST LONDON—The Muller family's burned-out yacht, the Arwen, was sighted from the air yesterday by former East London yachtsman Bob de Lacy Smith, who now runs a diving school on Margaruque island.

This was revealed yesterday by a Mr O Kindlimann, chairman of the Cruising Association of South Africa, region five.

According to reports from local villagers the Mullers were in good health and had been taken to Massinga, a Renamo stronghold north of Inhambane.

The Red Cross in Mozambique has been approached for assistance by the South African trade representative in Mozambique.