

Frelimo H
recaptures
town 14/6/90

MAPUTO. — The Mozambican armed forces have recaptured the locality of Socone in Zambezia province from the South African-backed MNR bandits, according to a report on Radio Mozambique yesterday. Socone, which is in the famine-stricken district of Ile, was occupied by the bandits for the past three years. There were tea-processing plants there, but these were devastated in 1987. — Ziana-Pana.