MAPUTO. — A group of MNR bandits kidnaped 16 children from an orphanage in the town of Gorongosa in the central Mozambican province of Sofala last week. Reporting this, Radio Mozambique said that the bandits also vandalised a school and a village in the same area. The radio did not describe the extent of the damage. This was the second incursion made by the bandits into the town of Gorongosa in the last two weeks. — Ziana-Pana.
