Mozambique: MNR alleged to have killed 15 people in Matola in January-May (Tca) The Mozambique National Resistance [MNR] murdered at least 15 people and injured five others in attacks carried out against the city of Matola from January to May 1992. Our correspondent has learned that during the same period 60 people were abducted and that the MNR plundered 10 shops in that city of Maputo Province. Mozambique armed forces units stationed in Matola killed three MNR elements, captured five others and seized three individual weapons during the same period.
