[Text] The Mozambican prime minister, Mr Machungo, who is in Berlin, the capital of the German Democratic Republic, has had a meeting with the leader of the GDR, Erich Honecker. Mr Machungo transmitted President Chissano's personal greetings to the GDR leader. In Berlin, the Mozambican prime minister has been taking part in an international conference on a nuclear-free zone. The conference was due to end today.

At their meeting, the Mozambican prime minister and Mr Honecker regarded the Berlin conference as an important and timely contribution toward the preservation of international peace and disarmament. They hailed the level accomplished in bilateral cooperation between Mozambique and the German Democratic Republic and spoke in favor for an improvement. At the end of the meeting, Mr Honecker asked the Mozambican prime minister to transmit his cordial greetings to President Chissano.
