
MOZAMBIQUE—
SOUTH AFRICA

ARB/E 11(11)
1974

Wheat Supplies

The South African Government will send emergency wheat supplies to Mozambique, where a shortage is threatening the central Beira district. The Agriculture Minister, Mr. Hendrik Schoeman, explained in an interview that an appeal for wheat supplies had come in from Mozambique. "Efforts will be made to send between 20,000 and 30,000 bags as soon as possible," he said.

(NA 20'11)