

Mozambique reports clash with South African troops Maputo radio on the 29th July reported clashes between a South African unit and the Mozambican forces in the Ressano Garcia area, Maputo Province on 22nd July. The South African force had later retreated towards the border with Transvaal, leaving behind a quantity of military equipment. This land incursion, said Maputo radio, had followed a series of South African violations of airspace of the Provinces of Gaza, Manica and Inhambane. There were also South African troop concentrations along the border with Mozambique. 14 82
